CEVA Logistics has further expanded its reach in South East Asia with the opening of a new warehouse located in Bien Hoa City, Dong Nai Province in Vietnam.

Strategically located to the north east of Ho Chi Minh City, this new facility has a range of convenient connections to the Eastern Economic Zone as well as the city.

New facility will support customers' storage and distribution needs including value-added services across various industries

CEVA Logistics' multi-user distribution center spans 10,000m² and is designed to provide storage and fulfillment solutions with value-added services such as co-packing, labelling, kitting and consolidation services for B2B and B2C distribution across Vietnam.

The facility will act as CEVA Logistics' main hub for south and central Vietnam, leveraging CEVA Logistics' in-house warehouse management system capabilities and suite of solutions supporting global and local customers in a fast-growing environment.

Elaine Low, CEVA Logistics' Regional Managing Director South East Asia & Pacific Region, said: "This new facility allows us to continue to expand our capabilities in support of our customers' growth in Vietnam complementing our air, ocean and ground services. It will provide customers with additional storage and various services to meet their rapidly expanding supply chain needs in the country. Its strategic location means customers will also be able to take advantage of new transport infrastructure coming to the region as economic growth gathers further momentum".
